EMES Youthgroup

an international online community of Young Friends aged 14-18

The EMES Youthgroup meets once a month online and annually in person for a weekend in September. Sessions offer a variety of activities, including hearing from interesting speakers, arts & crafts, playing games, group discussions and worship.

Recent themes included care for creation, the Quaker testimony on times & seasons, playing a pacifist version of Dungeons & Dragons, Quaker work for peace in Belfast and much more.
