Agenda

1. Holding a joint meeting for worship and exchange of views
2. Report of the Care Committee on Community Service in 2025.

Discernment

1. Holding a joint meeting for worship and exchange of views.

Because of the sad fact that after the antiwar ministry “Lion and Calf” that had place on Sunday, 14 December, the Commander of the Pechersk District Territorial Conscription Center in Kyiv City, Colonel Serhii Kalugin, despite the weekend, sent a military registration order to report on Christmas Eve for the purpose of illegally forcing Yurii Sheliashenko to change his pacifist and Quaker beliefs in violation of Article 18 (2) of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, – we ask the Clerks and the Care Committee to organize a joint meeting for worship and exchange of views on persecution for faith and beliefs that require non-military service to protect Ukraine from Russian aggression as a joint gathering online of the Meeting of Friends of Ukraine and the Ukrainian Pacifist Movement on 24 December 2025 at 9:00 a.m. Kyiv time.

The meeting will be open to everyone with a link to access via Zoom, and will be held in Ukrainian and English with consecutive translation and a video recording for further publication. At the beginning and end of the meeting, participants will be inspired by 10-minute moments of silence. We ask attendees of the meeting to share their stories of challenges to faith and convictions of conscientious objectors, ideas on steadfastness in faith and the protection of human rights. Those who might not be able to participate in the recorded public meeting for security reasons or due to inconvenient time are invited to our usual private meeting for worship on Wednesday at 8:30 p.m. Kyiv time.

2. Report of the Care Committee on Community Service in 2025.

We welcome the 2025 Report of the Care Committee on Community Service and ask that this important work continue to sustain our Quaker testimonies.

Yurii Sheliashenko, Clerk
Artem Denysov, Co-Clerk
